Risks

The BOLD cryptocurrency and the underlying software are still in the early development stage. There is no warranty or assurance that the technology behind BOLD or this website is error-free and there is a risk that the software may contain defects, weakness, vulnerabilities, or bugs which could cause the loss BOLD coins.

The regulatory status of distributed ledger technology is unclear or unsettled in many jurisdictions. It is unclear how any jurisdictions may apply current regulation to this type of technology and its applications. It is also unclear how or whether any jurisdictions will implement new legislation relating to distributed ledger technology. Any such changes in legislation or application of law could negatively impact BOLD. BOLD may cease operation in certain jurisdictions in the event that regulatory actions, changes in law or regulation make it undesirable or illegal for BOLD to operate in that Jurisdiction.

The BOLD system may require modifications if certain jurisdictions apply existing regulations or introduce new regulations addressing the technology used to create BOLD coins.

There is no guarantee or assurance that you will receive any benefits through the coins you hold. A lack of public interest, funding, and commercial success could lead to the abandonment of the creation and distribution of the BOLDs.

If your private key or password for your BOLD web wallet containing BOLD coins are lost or stolen, the BOLD coins will permanently be lost. Any third party that gains access to your private key may be able to misappropriate your coins.

The BOLD system, the underlying software application, the BOLD web wallet website (web.boldprivate.network) may be exposed to attacks by hackers or other individuals including, but not limited to malware attacks, denial of service attacks, consensus-based attacks, Sybil attacks, smurfing and spoofing. Any such successful attacks could result in loss of BOLD coins, adversely affecting BOLD and our ability to develop the platform and derive usage or functionality from coins.

The BOLD platform is still in development stage and will need to go through substantial development work. It may go through significant conceptual, technical and commercial changes before release. As a part of the development, the BOLD web wallet website may require an upgrade. If you decide not to participate in such upgrade, you may no longer be able to use this site

BOLD contains no governance rights. All decisions involving BOLD will be made by the BOLD development team acting in its sole and absolute discretion including but not limited to, decisions to discontinue the BOLD platform. BOLD does not guarantee that decisions made will not adversely affect the BOLD platform and/or the BOLD coins held by yourself.

These Terms and any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with their subject matter or formation (including non-contractual disputes and claims) shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of Canada.
